

16th National PG Convention of IAOMP - Hematopathology- An Uncharted Terrain Held on 23rd-25th June 2017

The department of oral pathology holds the pride of organizing 16th National PG Convention of IAOMP which was well-attended by a keen participation of more than 500 delegates. This lectures and preconvention courses aimed to arouse an interest in this less explored field of hematopathology, and was fruitful and useful for all who attended.
