

Dr Himanshu Kapoor completed his graduation and post graduation in pedodontics and preventive dentistry from Subharti dental college, Meerut. He has been felicitated with fellowship of international college of continuing dental education, Asia Pacific and fellowship from academy of general education, Manipal. He has been actively involved in teaching pedodontics to graduate and post graduate students for the past nine years. He is currently serving as additional Treasurer of ISPPD and is a member of South Asian society of Pediatric and preventive dentistry (SAPPD). Having presented papers at various national and international conferences, he has also chaired numerous scientific sessions at academic forums. Dr Kapoor has conducted preconference courses at national Conferences regarding endodontic retreatment. He is a well known speaker in national Pediatric dental forums and has several indexed publications to his credit.