

Dr Nikhil Srivastava

Dr Nikhil Srivastava is a Pediatric & Adolescent Dentist and an alumnus of prestigious King George's Medical College Lucknow India. An academician, clinician & a researcher, he is currently working as Dean, Professor & Head at Subharti Dental College & Hospital, Subharti University Meerut UP India and an Adjunct Professor at the Universitas Airlangga, Indonesia.

He is also the member of Dental Council of India (DCI) for the 3rd consecutive term, international advisor to the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow and board member of the Science Committee of the International Association of Pediatric Dentistry (IAPD).

With a total Citations of 1648 (h-index 23, i10-index 38) from more than 94 publications to his credit apart from contributing a number of chapters in reference books of Pediatric dentistry, he is passionately involved in teaching, research, clinical care and administration.

A widely travelled professional globally as well as in India on various medical & academic missions, he has a keen interest in child patient management, pediatric endodontics, dental trauma, preventive dentistry & interceptive orthodontics. Firmly believing that learning is a lifelong process, he regularly involves himself in various learning, skill enhancement & knowledge sharing platforms.

A fellow of 2 Royal Colleges- Royal college of Physicians and surgeons of Glasgow and Royal college of Surgeons of Edinburgh, he has been invited as a Visiting Scholar to the Indiana University, Indianapolis USA and also selected for T C White Travel Grant Award from the Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Glasgow. He is board member of Science Committee of International Association of Pediatric Dentistry, a body which is responsible for framing IAPD guidelines.

He is the expert group member of NABH and Bureau of Indian Standards (BIS)

